MEMORANDUM FOR:

FROM:

Deputy Legislative Counsel

STAT

SUBJECT:

Reaction on Capitol Hill re Reorganization
Concerning NFAC

1. (IUO) In response to your question concerning reaction on the Hill to the reorganization involving NFAC, the answer is that it has been mute. As an action designed to upgrade the product of intelligence, its timeliness and reliance, the reaction has been received favorably. But this positive reaction is somewhat submerged in a wait-and-see attitude on the overall reorganization. Lastly, but not least, the issue has taken a back seat to end-of-the-congressional-session issues, such as energy.

2. (IUO) In sum, there has not been much reaction at all; to the extent it has received attention, the reaction has been favorable; but what predominates is a wait-and-see attitude until the other shoe(s) drop.
